MR. REISSMAN'S OPINIONS.

He is Opposed to Certain Things Commended by Many.

The Union of Unions held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in Good Templars' hall, and after some unimportant business had been transacted, George Reissman of Detroit gave a short talk on public schools and their enemies. Mr. Reissman dealt mainly upon "Rum and Romanism," characterizing them as the greatest enemies of the public school system today. He advised his hearers to refuse to send their children to schools employing Catholic teachers and to use their influence against the election of Catholics as members of the board of education. He closed his address by reading the oath required of a candidate for the priesthood. The union decided to hold a social Thursday evening, May 19, at the residence of Mrs. Dr. DeVore.

TROTTERS AT THE TRACK.

Ray Warner is Training a String of Fifty Fine Ones.

Nearly fifty head of fine horses are being put through their paces at the West Michigan fair grounds under direction of Ray Warner. Horses are arriving daily, and it is evident that the capacity of the stables will be severely tested before the season is over. The grounds are in very bad shape owing to recent rains, but a fortnight of sunshine will put them in good condition. Mr. Warner has brought up nine head of good animals from his old stables at Coldwater, among them being Gingo, a son of Quiver, dam Nutwood. He is also handling one of Don J. Leathers' fine 2-year-old colts, which is a half brother to Monarchs. He has another very speedy 2-year-old, sister to Albatross and belonging to Boyd Pantling.

SETTLED THE STRIKE.

The Plumbers and Masters Come to a Satisfactory Agreement.

The journeymen plumbers and masters have settled all difficulties and the strike was declared off yesterday by individual agreement. A scale of wages was adopted on a nine hour basis, by agreement the best workmen will have a slight increase per hour while others have no special change in wages. Some of the plumbers want to work yesterday and others have promised to go to work this morning. The settlement of the differences was effected with good feelings on both sides and work will be continued as though there had been no interruption.

Big Sale of Land.

An important sale of city real estate that had been under consideration for several weeks was closed yesterday when Charles W. Smith of Brooklyn, N. Y., conveyed a tract of land consisting of about fifteen acres on Madison avenue, just south of the old fair grounds to Mayor W. J. Stuart, L. E. Knappen, Jud. Miller, Samuel Marman, Charles E. Mercer and James Durkin. The price paid was $15,000.

Press Club Meeting.

At the business meeting held immediately after the Morton House dinner yesterday, considerable routine business was transacted. Suitable action was taken in regard to the generous hospitality of Mr. J. Boyd Pantling, and a committee consisting of Col. M. A. Aldrich, Will J. Spear and W. B. Weston was named to convey words of thanks with hints of future action to the popular proprietor of the Morton House. J. H. Hansen, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that arrangements had been perfected for the grand excursion to be given to Niagara Falls Wednesday, June 1. Tickets will be sold at $2 for the trip and will be good for five days. There are already indications that a large number will take advantage of the exceedingly low rate to visit the falls.

Owing to the continued absence of At. S. White from the meetings of the board of directors, his place was declared vacant and L. E. Williams was unanimously elected to fill the position.

Much satisfaction was expressed for the beautiful new desk purchased for the club from Nelson, Matter & Co. Fred J. Adams was appointed chairman for the next supper and the club adjourned subject to the call of the president.

Amos Huddy—What a lassy woman he is! He must be! When you pants go to the ground I allow you 'em down 't fit him.

—Truth.

A Zanesville, Ohio, Sensation.

The good, goodly folk of Zanesville, Ohio, have lately been drinking in the details of a family row that has been stirred in the Common Pleas court there. Pretty Mrs. Emma Peanyman is the complainant and the story of her wrongs as told in court, brought hundreds to the city hall daily. She charges her husband with non-support and various other offenses against the marital vow. She alleges that on several occasions he has drawn a knife and threatened to take her life, and would have carried out his threat.

Emma Peanyman had it not been for the interference of others. One time when they were alone in their house on Lafayette street he locked her up stairs, tied some paper on the door and set to it, swearing that he would burn her to death and her with it. For months her little daughter came in at that instant, unlocked the door and extinguished the flames. It is hardly necessary to add that Mrs. Peanyman is a single again.

In South America there are giant race-hoppers with bodies five inches long and a wing-spread of ten inches. It is said that they are not very numerous these formidable insects do not do much damage.
